Moji Ice

Experience pure cold-water recovery with the Moji Ice Bath, designed for athletes and wellness lovers who want an easy, effective plunge without the need for a powered chiller. With a 375L capacity and modern, compact design, it delivers full-body immersion in any backyard or home gym.

Constructed using rotational-moulded polyethylene with foam-filled insulation, it's built to keep water colder for longer while standing up to New Zealand's outdoor conditions. Just fill, add ice, and reset your body the natural way.

Recovery made simple.
Cold therapy made accessible.
